OF THE

NORTH INDIANA CONFERENCE.

Rule 1. The Conference shall meet at 8:30 A. M., spend a half hour in devotional exercises, to be conducted by a member of the Conference appointed by the Bishop, proceed with the business at 9 A. M., and adjourn at 12 M. But the Conference may, in its discretion, alter the time of meeting and adjournment.

Rule 2. The President shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Conference; but in case of such appeal the question shall be taken without debate, except that the appellant may make a simple statement of the grounds of his appeal.

Rule 3. All resolutions and motions shall be in writing, if the President, Secretary, or any two members request it.

Rule 4. When a motion is made and seconded, or a resolution introduced and seconded, or a report presented and read by the Secretary, or stated by the President, it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference; but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover, with the consent of the Conference, at any time before amendment or decision.

Rule 5. The motions to Lay on the Table, to Take from the Table, and for the Previous Question, shall be taken without debate.

Rule 6. No new motion or resolution shall be entertained until the one under consideration has been disposed of, which may be done by adoption or rejection, unless one of the following motions should intervene, which shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, namely:

(1.) To fix the time to which the Conference shall adjourn.
(2.) To adjourn.
(3.) To take a recess.
(4.) To lay on the table.
(5.) For the previous question.
(6.) To postpone to a given time.
(7.) To refer.
(8.) To substitute.
(9.) To amend.
(10.) To postpone indefinitely.

A motion to amend an amendment shall be in order, and a substitute for both amendments may be received, which substitute may be amended, and if a substitute be accepted, it shall operate as an amendment to the original proposition.

RULE 7. When any member is about to speak in debate, or to deliver any matter to the Conference, he shall rise and respectfully address the President, but shall not proceed until recognized by him.

RULE 8. No member shall be interrupted while speaking, except by the President to call him to order when he departs from the question, or uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the President to the subject when he deems a speaker out of order, and any member may explain when he thinks himself misrepresented.

RULE 9. When a member desires to speak to a question of privilege, he shall briefly state the question; but it shall not be in order for him to proceed until the President shall have decided it a question of privilege.

RULE 10. No person shall speak more than twice on the same question, nor more than ten minutes at one time, without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

RULE 11. When any motion or resolution shall have been acted upon by the Conference, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration; but a motion to reconsider a non-debatable motion shall be decided without debate.

RULE 12. No member shall absent himself from the service of the Conference without leave, unless he is sick or unable to attend.

RULE 13. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar at the time when such question shall be put by the President, except by leave of the Conference when such member has been necessarily absent.

RULE 14. Every member who is within the bar at the time a question is put shall give his vote, unless the Conference, for special reasons, shall excuse him.

RULE 15. It shall be in order to move that the question be taken without further debate on any measure pending, except in cases in which character is involved, and if sustained by a vote of two-thirds, the question shall be taken.

REPORTS

ON EDUCATION.

The Committee on Education respectfully present the following report:

DePauw University.

This great University, situated so centrally in this State, is still growing in the wealth of its character, in the worth of its erudition, in its advantages for culture, and in the number and success of its students.

Having closed the first half century of its history, under the crowning blessings of God, this institution of learning enters upon the second half with brightest prospects for a greatly enlarged usefulness. With a Faculty numbering about forty-five, and the wise administration of its affairs, its patronage is not restricted to the four Conferences of Indiana, for from all these Western States, as well as from the slopes of the Pacific, the youth of the land flock to its halls.

The plan upon which DePauw University is organized is that of Great Britain rather than that of Germany. It consists of the Asbury College of Liberal Arts, embracing four full courses of study; a School of Theology and a School of Law, each with a complete and efficient Faculty of its own, besides several "Special Schools," known as a Preparatory School, a School of Music, a School of Art, a Normal School and a Military School, the last of which is under the admirable direction of Lieut. May, an officer of the United States Army.

Upon the whole, the health of both Faculty and students was probably never better; the order of the institution has been excellent, while the morality and spirituality of the students have been very commendable and gratifying.

What DePauw University is to-day to the Church and the world; what its possibilities shall be in the realizations to come, is in a large measure due to our fathers in the ministry, to their wise founding of the institution, whose interests were created and sustained by the energy and self-sacrificing efforts of the founders—the early Methodist Ministers. More than fifty years ago the University of the State refused our Church a chair and a share in the instruction of that institution on the supposed incompetency of a Methodist to meet its demands. Thereupon the preachers resolved to found not a single chair, but a University of their own, and fill it with a Faculty of learned instructors for the education of their own sons and daughters, and those of their friends. DePauw University to-day is the result. We make no invidious comparisons between our own institution and that of the State in respect of high qualifications in the teachers, in the course of study, in the appliances of education. It may, however, be remarked that it will require many years for the State University to overtake DePauw in the numbers in attendance, if not indeed in the quality of the work done, notwithstanding the whole common and high school system of Indiana is at its back. But the relation of our University has been restricted not to our own State or denomination. Many preparing for the ministry, as well as others in other denominations, have sought the advantages furnished in its School of Theology.

And when we now think of the facilities afforded for thorough education, of the talent, learning and experience of those charged with the institution and administration of its affairs, of the nearly nine hundred students in attendance the present year, of the rich and royal endowment to come into its possession within the coming decade—the munificent endowment of Hon. Washington C. DePauw, for which there is no parallel in all the Methodisms on either side of the great sea—with humility and joy, but with adoring gratitude to our heavenly Father, we may exclaim: "What hath God wrought!" May the Church, but above all, the great Head of the Church, richly bless DePauw University!

Touching the character and details of the work done in the University during the past year, the following report of the Visitors relates:

The Board of Trustees of the University, so far as we are able to ascertain, has in no wise violated the provisions of its Charter.

The Annual Examinations were thorough and honorable to the students and Faculty. The last year was one of unusual success. The graduating classes of the College and the several Schools were large. The past year was one of increasing growth and advancement in all the departments of the University. The Rev. Alexander Martin, D. D., LL. D., the President of the University, has been remarkably successful, both in government and administration of affairs. Great harmony has prevailed. The number of students will approximate nine hundred this year.

The several courses of study in the College and different Schools fully meet the demands of the age and are equal to the best Universities. The classes in the College of Liberal Arts are large and doing thorough work.

The Faculty of the Theological School being now complete, its work is eminently satisfactory to all concerned, and the outlook encouraging. Some sixty-five are in attendance, of whom probably five will graduate at the Commencement.

There is no tuition in this department. Boarding, including room-rent, furniture fuel and light, has been furnished the past year for one dollar and a half per week. There is great need of a boarding hall, in behalf of poor young men preparing for the ministry, whereby the cost of their education may be reduced very much more. The energy deep piety and religious department of the students, both in the College and in this School, together with the faithful and efficient work of the Faculty of Theology, promise great gain for the Church. Several natives of Japan have already been educated and returned to their own land as Missionaries, and several others are now pursuing their course with the same view.

The Law School is worthily conducted in all respects, and in the present year has graduated a large class. This department affords superior advantages.

The School of Music is liberally and deservedly patronized. Its reputation is on the increase.

The work of the School of Art deserves special commendation. Increasing interest prevails, and unusual success has been realized.

The Normal School has sent out quite a large number of well qualified teachers. It has now about eighty students. The department is more and more favorably known, and the patronage is increasing.

The Preparatory School, under the direction of Dr. Bassett, is a necessity to the University, and accomplishes admirably the work assigned to it.

The School of Military Science and Tactics has attained distinction. The young men enjoy the drill, which conduces to health and development.

The munificent endowment made by the will of the late Hon. Washington C. DePauw, together with the careful supervision of the Board of Trustees, indicate a day at hand in the work of evangelical education hitherto unknown in our history.

Your committee nominate for re-election to the Board of Trustees of DePauw University Bishop Thomas Bowman and Hon. C. C. Binkley.

We recommend that R. D. Robinson and C. G. Hudson be continued as Visitors the ensuing year, related to the Joint Board, as heretofore requested by that Board; and that C. H. Brown and C. King be appointed Visitors of the Theological School, to attend the examinations and commencement May 26–29.

We present the following resolutions for adoption:

1. That we cordially recommend our School of Theology to young men among us preparing for the ministry as a school every way worthy of their confidence and patronage.

2. ON THE OBSERVANCE OF THE SABBATH.

We greatly deplore the desecration of the Sabbath by people who patronize Sunday newspapers, Sunday trains, open places of business and post-offices, and indulge in pleasure riding and social visiting.

We notice with gratitude an awakening public sentiment on the Sabbath question, notably in the action of various boards, and we heartily commend the management of the C.,W. & M. R. R , and the recent action of the Pennsylvania Company, as embodied in Order No. 2, recognizing the Sabbath as the day of rest.

We ask all lovers of the Sabbath to support this and all similar movements that favor the better observance of the Lord's Day.

We call the special attention of the Conference to the excellent helps furnished by the Society to aid in taking this collection.

We also refer to the action of the last General Conference, as recorded in Article 406 of the Discipline, making it the duty of the Presiding Elders to apportion to the various charges the amount asked of this Conference for this cause, and also requiring them to ascertain at the third Quarterly Conference whether the required amount has been secured.

ON THE AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

Your Committee on the American Bible Society beg leave to report as follows:

This Society is an auxiliary to every Christian effort. Its work is both missionary and benevolent. To all classes the Bible is sold at the mere cost of production; while to the poor it is given without money and without price. The object of the Society is to supply every destitute family in the country with the Scriptures, and to do this in their own tongue. Special attention is given to the translation and circulation of the Bible in foreign lands. Eleven District Superintendents are in the field, and 337,807 Bibles and Testaments were distributed during the past year. One million and a half of Bibles, Testaments, and portions of the same, are issued annually from the presses of the Society. We would, therefore, recommend the passage of the following resolutions:

1. We will give to this great and non-sectarian institution our earnest prayers.

2. We recommend the District Superintendent, Rev. W. J. Vigus, to our people, and extend to him a cordial invitation to our charges, and that we will take collections in all our charges for the cause.

UNION OF EDUCATIONAL INTERESTS.

Your committee appointed to confer with the trustees of the DePauw University and Fort Wayne College, with a view to unify and, as far as possible, consolidate the interests and work of the University and College, would make the following report:

The subject was presented to the Joint Board meeting of both institutions. The Joint Board of Fort Wayne College declined to appoint a committee, believing the proper time had not yet arrived, hence no meeting was called It is our unanimous opinion as a committee that such steps should be soon taken as will secure the unification of all our educational work in the State, so as to relieve our colleges and seminaries and assist our University in reaching a larger number of our young people with its grand work.

MEMOIRS.

THE REV. C. MARTINDALE.

Charles Martindale was born in Delaware county, Ind., July 9, 1837, and died in Topeka, Kan., May 15, 1888, in his 51st year.

Br. Martindale was converted in 1853, licensed to exhort in 1855, and to preach in the same year. He was admitted to this Conference in 1856. His appointments were Peru Mission, Centerville, Wayne Street in Fort Wayne, North Street in Indianapolis, New Castle, Pendleton, Kokomo, Tipton, Greenfield, Goshen and Bluffton. He was then employed for three years as the State agent of the Indiana Temperance Alliance. He was then transferred to the Kansas Conference, where he was stationed at Larnerd, McPherson and Hutchinson. He then spent four years in evangelistic work. He located from the Kansas Conference, but in a short time, after his illness came upon him, he was readmitted to the North Indiana Conference and given a superannuated relation, which he held at the time of his death.

While he was stationed at Indianapolis he was married to Miss H. Matilda Barns, daughter of our well known Br. H. N. Barns. She survives him.

Br. Martindale was well known among us. His character and his work were such that they need no praise from us. He was an excellent preacher, a faithful pastor, and a very earnest worker in all the branches of ministerial work and in every reform. He had many revivals, among which the one at Bluffton deserves especial mention as the greatest in the history of that church, and one of the most remarkable in the history of this Conference. His convictions were deep, and he supported them with great earnestness. He labored with great energy and acceptability in the temperance cause. The churches prospered under his care, and he was greatly beloved by his parishioners.

Some seven years ago our brother had a very severe attack of typhoid fever, from which he never fully recovered. It left him in a weakened condition physically, and mentally as well. The last time he came among us in our charges we noticed with sorrow that his sickness had left traces of permanent injury. He became despondent and gloomy. The last time he was in a class meeting, he said that he was passing amid the shadows, and at once sat down. His last sermon was delivered at Topeka, on the atonement of Christ, and was said to have been very impressive. Thus gradually his mind passed under a cloud, until his reason was dethroned. In this irrational condition he remained for almost three years, and from it he never recovered

But thanks be to God, we have every reason to believe that when he came to himself, he found himself with the Lord whom he had loved so fervently and had served so faithfully. Though much afflicted here, he now sings on high, and rejoices according to the years wherein he saw evil. Thank God, these things have for him forever passed away, and he dwells in the land "where the inhabitant shall not say, 'I am sick.'"

His funeral was conducted by his pastor, the Rev. F. T. Rhoades, and he was buried at Topeka.

THE REV. J. J. COOPER

Josiah Jackson Cooper was born January 6, 1809, in Lancaster county, Pa., and died in New Britton, Ind., June 17, 1888, in his seventy-ninth year. When Brother Cooper was about nine years old, his parents removed to Franklin county Indiana. Here his youth was spent in the labors of a farm.

In his twenty-second year he was married to Eliza A. Abbott, which brought him into a Methodist family, so that the next year he united with our Church. He soon felt the call to preach. He was licensed as an exhorter, and in 1834 was licensed as a local preacher. After four years of service he was received into the Old Indiana Conference, and became one of the original members of this Conference at the time of its organization.

For fifty years he labored uninterruptedly, without the break of a year, and very acceptably. The list of his appointments is as follows: Delphi, Monticello, Independence, Williamsport, Covington, Newport, Alamo, Middletown, Union, Terre Coupe, Steuben, Lima, Auburn, Allen, Columbia, Winchester, Agent for Fort Wayne College, Wabash Circuit, Peru District four years, Warsaw Station, Angola and Orland, Ligonier, Middlebury, Lima, Leesburgh, PawPaw and Roann, Miami, Alto, New Britton, and Perrysburgh. On a large number of these circuits he remained the full Disciplinary time.

At our last session he preached his semi-centennial sermon, and took a superannuated relation, and in seventy-five days thereafter he was called on high.

We are not able to give the date of the death of his first wife. His second marriage was to Lucinda Thornburgh. His third marriage was to Sarah Ann Hector. His third wife died during his last pastorate at Perrysburgh. He had thirteen children, of whom eight are living and five are dead.

Bro. Cooper's health began to fail about last Christmas time. He was able, however, to complete his year. Immediately after Conference he went to New Britton to live with his daughter. On the morning of the 30th day of May he arose in his usual health, ate heartily, and conversed with the family until about 7 o'clock. At that time he was left alone. Within ten minutes the family heard a noise, and hurrying in, found him lying on the floor in an unconscious state. He had put on his hat, taken his cane, and started to go out for his morning paper when he fell. It proved to be a stroke of apoplexy. He recovered consciousness a part of the time, and said that he had no pain, and that all was joy and happiness with him. He lingered until Sunday morning, June 17, when he quietly passed away.

His funeral services were held at Noblesville, and conducted by the Rev. H. J. Norris. Brother Cooper will be greatly missed among us. His venerable form, which has been seen in every session of this Conference, seemed necessary to the completeness of our sessions. He was a plain, earnest and faithful preacher of the ministry of reconciliation, and he always faithfully declared the gospel committed to his hands. He had many hard circuits. He never troubled the authorities about his appointment, but went cheerfully wherever he was sent. His fifty years of service did much for the establishment of our grand Indiana Methodism. He loved the Church for which he labored so long. He was highly favored in having health, strength and effective ability unto such a great age, and in being so soon released and transferred to the more excellent glory when his work here was done. Farewell, my brother!

THE REV. JAMES GREER.

James Greer was the youngest son of James and Agnes Greer, and was born in Burhead, Renfrewshire, Scotland, March 6, 1837. When he was about seven years of age his parents emigrated to this country, and settled at Mt. Holly, N. J. Here he was brought up, educated in the common schools, and apprenticed to a mechanic. Later he removed with his parents to Philadelphia, where he worked at his trade.

He was converted January 31, 1858, in his 21st year, and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church the 14th of the following February. In 1860 he was licensed as a local preacher by the Rev. P. Coomes. During the civil war he served as Chaplain of the Corn Exchange Regiment, which took so prominent a part in the battle of Antietam. He came to Indiana in 1863, and served as a supply on the St. Joseph Mission near Ft. Wayne, and in 1864 he was received on trial in this Conference.

His appointments were as follows: Ft. Wayne Mission, Roanoke, Allen Circuit, Bluffton, Princeton, Lima, Perrysburgh, Larwill, Albion, Kendallville, Huntington, Decatur and Presiding Elder of the Warsaw District. During these twenty-five years of service he took three vacations only, and was absent from his post seven Sabbaths in all.

He was married to Elizabeth M. Ashley, near Ft. Wayne, December 15th, 1864, who has now been added to our roll of Conference widows. They had four children. The death of the oldest, Agnes, in Wabash, July 11, 1886, was a great blow to Bro. Greer.

Our brother was robust, and never known to be sick; his children never saw him confined to his bed until his last illness. On Thanksgiving morning he was taken with hoarseness. He attended service on that day, ate dinner with a friend, returned home early, and by eight in the evening was in a dangerous condition. For eight days he suffered greatly. His malady was a malignant form of laryngitis, and soon caused him to realize that he would not recover; no relief could be given by the best of physicians and specialists. He arranged his business and gave his parting counsels to his family. His breathing could be heard in every portion of the house. To his brother Ministers he said: "I am just on the verge." At the last he was unable to speak at all, but in perfect consciousness he beckoned, pointed upward, and gave other affirmative answers to every inquiry if all was well. The struggle ended December 8, 1888.

The funeral services were held in our Church at Warsaw, in the same building where he was ordained Elder; where he was made a Presiding Elder; where he preached his last sermon and held his last Quarterly Conference. The Rev. A. E. Mahin conducted the services, assisted by the other Presiding Elders of the Conference, and about forty of his fellow-ministers being present. His remains were interred in Fort Wayne.

Bro. Greer had a sturdy Christian character. He was always frank, never concealing his views on any question, religious or secular. He was an excellent preacher and a faithful pastor. He was strong in body, active, diligent, and the last man who would have been selected a year ago to be taken from us. He was honored by his brethren last year by being elected as the second Alternate Delegate to the General Conference. He was loved in his charges, and trusted by the preachers under his care as one who would be faithful to their interest, and who could always be relied upon to do the very best he possibly could for them.

In the pastorate he had some very difficult places to fill, but he faithfully did his best, and was blest of God. He was beloved in his charges, the churches prospered, the membership was increased.

His family was very dear to him, and he was ever found in his home when he could be there. He was favored with a long and useful career, and will be greatly missed from among us. May the God of the widow and the fatherless be the stay of his afflicted family, and may others be raised up in the Conference to fill his place.

THE REV. HENRY L. WATSON.

Henry Lemon Watson was born near New Cumberland, Grant county, Ind., May 24, 1849. He was converted in early life, and soon felt the conviction that he must preach the gospel. He long refused, tried farming, and finally felt that he would lose his soul if he continued rebellious. Hence he entered the work late in life.

He was licensed to exhort by the Rev. E. F. Hasty, then Presiding Elder of the Muncie District, and was afterward licensed as a local preacher by the Eaton Quarterly Conference. When the Rev. R. D. Robinson came to Muncie District he found Alexandria Circuit "to be supplied." He engaged Bro. Watson, who entered on the work with inexperience, but zeal, and who received the Lord's sanction by the conversion of souls.

He remained there one year. When the Rev. C. W. Lynch was sent to the Fort Wayne District he employed Brother Watson as supply on the Sheldon Circuit, which he served acceptably three years. Next year he was employed as supply on the Monroe Circuit, where they greatly regretted his removal at the end of one year.

Last spring when the North Indiana Conference met at Wabash, Bro. Watson was admitted on trial, was ordained a Local Deacon by Bishop Merrill, and appointed to Wabash Circuit. Here he labored with his usual earnestness, and had just closed a successful revival service at one appointment.

Though admonished by the premonitions of sickness, he still continued to preach, until coming home, the Monday before Christmas, he was taken violently ill with pneumonia and died the day after New Years.

His ministry was one of self-sacrifice. Serving weak circuits, and having a large family to support, his difficulties were numerous, but his cheerful perseverance overcame many of them. Feeling the defects arising from lack of educational advantages, he labored hard to make up the lack by study. He was a soul-winner honored by God.

He was married to Miss Caroline Crow October 6, 1870. Four children remain, from a family of seven, to comfort the sorrowing widow. His parents, four sisters and two brothers complete the sad group. His confidence was strong in Christ, and he looked to the future calmly and peacefully.

His funeral services were held at New Cumberland, by the Rev. C. W. Lynch, assisted by the Revs. C. U. Wade, C. E. Bacon and others. His body was laid to rest in his old home burying ground, amid a saddened company of mourning relatives and old friends and neighbors.

MRS. FLORA A. LIGHT.

Flora Alice Huff, daughter of W. J. and Eliza Huff, was born in Bremen, Marshall county, Ind., September 7, 1861, and died in the same town, May 21, 1888, aged 26 years, 8 months and 14 days.

She was converted in her twentieth year, and received into the Church by her husband in the first revival services that he ever conducted. She at once became an earnest laborer in the Church, and was especially active in Sunday-School and Missionary work. She was very faithful and always consistent.

She was intelligent, a great reader of books and fond of learning. She excelled among her fellow students and prepared herself for College, where she spent four years. She was always strong and healthy until her last year in College, when she contracted a severe cold, which resulted in consumption. Her decline was slow, covering a period of two years. Frequently she would seem to be much better, and hope for complete recovery.

She was married to the Rev. S. Light, November 17, 1877. The winter after her marriage she seemed much better. But just before our last session she contracted further cold, from which she never rallied. She was never able to move after Conference with her husband to his charge at Bristol. Her final illness was of eight weeks' duration, accompanied with the usual sufferings of consumption. Yet up to the end she never lost consciousness, and was able to converse until within a few moments before her release. She was sweetly resigned to her Savior's will, her only sorrow being that she could not actively go out into the work for which she had striven for four long years to prepare herself. A few days before her death her mother heard her singing, and coming into the room where she was all alone, her daughter said, "I have long since done all the praying that it is necessary to have done for me, and I shall soon be where I can hear the song of the heavenly choir." Just before her death, her husband inquired if she was trusting in the Lord. She replied, "Oh, yes, I am trusting in Him with all my heart, and He is preciously near." At that moment a sister arrived, and recognizing her, she said, "Kiss me, Etta!" and in a few breaths she had departed to be forever with the Lord.

Her funeral was conducted by the Rev. C. H. Murray, and the interment took place at Bremen.

May the loving Savior graciously support our Brother in this great trial, and may the thought that his sainted wife knows and rejoices in all his labors and successes ever be to him an inspiration. While he goes forth weeping, bearing precious seed, he shall doubtless return again, bringing his sheaves with him.

MRS. LINNIE CISSELL.

Linnie Cissell, daughter of Rev. J. W. and E. F. Paschall, and wife of Rev. C. C. Cissell, died at Cadiz, Ind., August 10, 1888. She was born in Huntsville, Randolph county, Ind., June 21, 1861. She was married to her now bereaved husband at Corunna, Ind., February 14, 1881. The deceased was religiously inclined from her youth, having led her schoolmates in prayer when only eight years old. We can truly say she was always a Christian. Being of a kind disposition, she was loved by all who knew her. To know her was to love her. But the tenderest ties are soon to be broken, for on August 10, 1888 at 7:35 o'clock P. M., the spirit left the body to be with Jesus, whom she loved. She had been a constant sufferer for about two years, yet she bore it all uncomplainingly. In her last hours, when suffering intense pain, she called the family all around her bed, and, one by one, kissed them an affectionate goodby, saying: "Don't cry; it's all right. I'm only going to live with Jesus" In her last moments she again called the family around her, but was too far gone to make her desires known. She was a noble woman, a true friend, a loving sister, an affectionate daughter, a faithful wife, a fond mother, a devout Christian. The triumph of her departure, and the hope of meeting her again, together with the firm belief that God "doeth all things well," enable us to say "Thy will be done." Her body was taken to Huntsville, where services were conducted by Rev. Thos. Stabler.

Though she died young, we will not venture to say her life work was unfinished. We count time by heart throbs, and the evolution of principles and the development of soul. By and by the ransomed will all come home. Then shall we understand why her transition came so early.

MRS. EMILY S. COOK.

Emily, the daughter of Abraham and Susan Snyder, was born in Warren county, N. J., August 22, 1856. When but a little girl she was left an orphan by the death of her father in the Andersonville prison pen, and was taken to the house of her grandfather.

At the death of her grandfather, she was brought, at the age of twelve years, to Kosciusko county, Ind., by her maiden aunts, who settled near Warsaw. Here she was brought up on a farm, attending school in winter and in summer doing such work as the farm requires. At the age of 18 she had qualified herself to teach, and followed that occupation for several years.

She was brought up in the Presbyterian faith, and in January, 1874, was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church January 24, 1879, she was married to our brother, the Rev. J. B. Cook, to whom she was a most affectionate, faithful and helpful wife. She entered heartily into all of the work of the ministry, and without a murmur endured all of its toils and privations. She held up her husband's hands in his heavy responsibilities, and cheered him with her loving counsels. She was the mother of four children, two of whom went to the other land before her, while the eldest and the youngest are left with their stricken father.

She was modest and retiring in her manner, and much of the time was in feeble health. From October, 1887, she gradually declined until May last. On the 21st of May the nerve centers gave way, and for two weeks she suffered intensely with inflammation of the brain. She died June 2, 1888, in her 32d year.

For some months she had had premonitions of her departure, and frequently spoke of them to her husband. On the day of her attack she said, "I shall never get well; how can I leave you and the children." Some time previous Brother Cook had asked her, "Do you think you are ready to die?" and she replied: "I am trusting in God, and through the merits of His son, Jesus Christ, I hope to gain admittance into the celestial city." On the night of her attack, when not suffering too severely to speak, she praised God continually. But her life-long service to God, and of the Church, are worth more than any dying testimonies She always testified publicly, whenever she had an opportunity, in a clear and pointed manner, and was eloquent and powerful in prayer, in public services, at the family altar and in pastoral work.

Her funeral was conducted by her Presiding Elder, the Rev. B. A. Kemp, assisted by several members of the Conference, and her remains were buried at Warsaw. May our heavenly Father sustain our afflicted brother.

MRS. MARY M. REED.

Mary M. Denius, daughter of Samuel J. and Tena Denius, was born in Stark county, O., and died in Dublin, Ind., September 23, 1888, aged 45 years, 4 months and 16 days.

In her early childhood her father settled in Fulton county, O., where the the country was new and sparsely settled, and many privations fell to their lot. At the age of seventeen she began to teach school, and taught successfully for thirty-four terms. She had special capabilities for school work, possessing a clear comprehension, an evenly balanced mind, a vigorous will, and a kind and loving heart.

September 16, 1869, she was married to Robert S. Reed, then a merchant at Mount Etna, Ind. They had four children, of whom the youngest died in infancy, and the rest survive her.

She was converted in Roanoke, January 25, 1866. In the spring of 1878 she entered the itinerant life with her husband in the Methodist Episcopal Church. She nobly helped him to carry the burdens, to bear the responsibilities and master the difficulties. She entered into the very forefront of her husband's ministry. She had excellent gifts as a speaker, which she freely used in the advancement of the temperance cause, in revivals, in the Church, in the edification of believers, and in the organization and efficiency of the various branches of effort in Christ's kingdom. She left her impress for eternal good upon hundreds of souls in the various charges that her husband served.

She was greatly interested in the Missionary work, and for years she sustained the chief official position in our Conference in the Woman's Home Missionary Society. She not only assisted her husband in his own work, but she also frequently aided other pastors in revival and temperance efforts. Some three years ago she held a revival at Lynn, in which over one hundred were converted, and some eighty were added to the Church. And at Lewisville, a year ago, great results attended her efforts. In her husband's present charge, at one of the appointments, over one hundred were added to the Church with her help.

Sister Reed was taken away in the fullness of her powers and in the midst of her usefulness. Her final illness was typhoid fever, and was not of long duration. On the Wednesday preceding her death, she had unusual triumph of soul. She was lifted up above the pain into the very rapture of Heaven. During her sickness she received a telegram announcing the death of her mother. She made the remark: "O, how it will surprise mother if I come so soon." Saturday night, when assured that the end was near, she called for her children, and gave them her farewell embrace and dying counsel, and then whispered her last loving words to the husband with whom she had so sweetly labored for the Lord. On Sabbath morning she said: "I am going home to-day," and so it proved. To her sister, to whom she had previously expressed a great desire to get well, for the sake of her family and of the Church, she said, as her last words: "O, the resignation is so easy."

Thus, triumphantly, departed our sister, to hear it said by heaven and earth, "Well done! good and faithful servant." Thus did the Church Militant sustain a great loss, while the Church Triumphant received a precious addition. We could ill afford to spare her so soon from the Church. Not only her husband and children, but also the Church and the Conference have sustained a great loss. Eternity alone can reveal the greatness of her work.

Her funeral, at Dublin, was conducted by her Presiding Elder, the Rev. T. Stabler, and was largely attended by the ministers and laymen of the Richmond District.

May she, in the spirit, continue to be the guide and help of our brother in his loneliness, and may the orphaned children still have the mother's overshadowing care.
